

24U Promoted to Platinum Level of FileMaker Business Alliance (FBA)

FBA allows to share best practices built on FileMaker® technologies

Prague, CZ - October 7, 2016 — 24U Software, a leading FileMaker Platform developer, today announced that it has been designated as a Platinum Level FileMaker Business Alliance (FBA) member.

Partners who reach the FBA Platinum level are specifically selected by FileMaker, Inc., an Apple subsidiary, for exhibiting the highest level of customer service and technical expertise in creating innovative custom apps with the FileMaker Platform.

24U Software is a member of the FileMaker Business Alliance since the year 2002 when it used to be called FileMaker Solutions Alliance. The company has 6 FileMaker 15 Certified developers on staff and achieved this milestone by focusing on providing the best value for customers and constantly improving their quality of services. Closer partnership with FileMaker, Inc. is the next step in being able to take great care of customers using the FileMaker platform.

About FBA Platinum

“Our FBA Platinum partners are the closest extension of our ecosystem. This partner level aligns seamlessly to our strategy and vision and complements FileMaker in our go-to-market strategy.” said FileMaker vice president of worldwide sales, Brad Freitag.

FileMaker, Inc, collaborates regularly with FBA Platinum partners to share ideas, best practices and ways to extend offerings built on FileMaker technologies. Participation in the FBA Platinum level program is by invitation only. For more information about the program go to: <http://www.filemaker.com/fba/>
